

Planning

A healed mind does not Plan

W 135 12:1

~ ~ ~ ~

The mind that plans is thus refusing to allow for change. What it has learned before becomes the basis for its future goals. Its past experience directs its choice of what will happen.

W 135 17:1-3

...Receive instead of plan, that we may give instead of organize

W 135 23:2

[Happiness is in the moment. Planning takes us away from the moment because it is future oriented.]

If there are plans to make, you will be told of them. They may not be the plans you thought were needed, nor indeed the answers to the problems which you thought confronted you. But they are answers to another kind of question, which remains unanswered yet in need of answering until the Answer comes to you at last.

W 135 25:2-4

Try not to shape this day as you believe would benefit you most. For you can not conceive of all the happiness that comes to you without your planning.

W 135 28:1-2
