

Time

The purpose of time is to enable man to learn to use it constructively.

T 1 I 15:2

Now is the time of salvation, for now is the release from time.

T 12 VI 52:1

This lesson takes no time. For what is time without a past and future? It has taken time to misguide you so completely, but it takes no time at all to be what you are. Begin to practice the Holy Spirit's use of time as a teaching aid to happiness and peace. Take this very instant, now, and think of it as all there is of time. Nothing can reach you here out of the past, and it is here that you are completely absolved, completely free and wholly without condemnation. From this holy instant wherein holiness was born again you will go forth in time without fear, and with no sense of change with time.

T 15 II 10:1-7

[ In this instant - I can be at peace ]

Time is cruel in the ego's hand, as it is kind when used for gentleness.

T 17 IV 18:2

Nothing is ever lost but time, which in the end is meaningless.

T 26 VI 31:1

~ ~ ~ ~

For time is but another meaningless defense you made against the truth.

W 136 14:4

~ ~ ~ ~

But time, with its illusions of change and death, wears out the world and all things in it. Yet time has an ending, and it is this that the teachers of God are appointed to bring about. For time is in their hands. Such was their choice, and it is given them.

In the ultimate sense, reincarnation is impossible. There is no past or future, and the idea of birth into a body has no meaning either once or many times. Reincarnation cannot, then, be true in any real sense. Our only question should be, "Is the concept helpful?" M 24 1-4

Atonement might be equated with total escape from the past and total lack of interest in the future. Heaven is here. There is nowhere else. Heaven is now. There is no other time. M 24 6:3-7
